Andrew Baker is responsible for developing and improving management and financial reporting processes, coordinating audit, tax, and valuation services performed by external accounting and valuation firms, as well as various finance and accounting-related projects for Research Affiliates. Research Affiliates is a global leader in smart beta, factor investing, and asset allocation. The firm creates investment strategies and tools based on award-winning research and delivers these solutions in partnership with some of the world's premier financial institutions.

Before joining Research Affiliates, Andrew was a global finance manager at Capital Group, where he worked on financial planning, forecasting, reporting, and analysis for several divisions of the company. Prior to that position, he was a senior tax accountant at The Carlyle Group. He started his career at the public accounting firm of Deloitte.

Andrew received a BS in accounting from Loyola Marymount University and is a certified public accountant (inactive).
